Dear Mr. Dulles:

The many Americans, of both political parties, who have been admirers of you and your brother, are gratified that Mr. Kennedy has asked you to continue in your very important office.

The recent postage stamp in memory of John Foster Dulles gave me the opportunity to prepare a souvenir card; I would be very grateful if you can find a minute in your busy day to autograph it for me.

Best wishes for a Happy New Year.

Sincerely yours,

Burton S. Levin
